AARON Outdoor Stool

Zenith

Features:

In a single line, dynamic and minimal, two functions, stool and coffee table together. It's called AARON, double a in the name, to underline the multi-tasking generosity of a design that limits the clutter and guarantees privacy and relaxation even in outdoor environments. From a metal stem, a welcoming seat in Iroko wood and a rotating aluminum table top sprout. Functionality and elegance to furnish contemporary outdoor environments dedicated to catering, work or waiting.
